Mary holds her unique position and has a `category of her own' not as a mere Virgin, but as the Virgin Mother, as the predestined Mother of the Lord. Her function in the Incarnation is twofold. On the one hand, she secures the continuity of the human race. Her Son is, in virtue of his `second nativity,' the Son of David, the Son of Abraham and of all the `forefathers' (this is emphasized by the genealogies of Jesus, in both versions). In the phrase of St. Irenaeus, He `recapitulated' in Himself the long roll of humanity,' `gathered up in Himself all nations, dispersed as they were even from Adam' and `took upon Himself the old way of creation.' But, on the other hand, He `exhibited a new sort of generation.' He was the New Adam. This was the most drastic break in the continuity, the true reversal of the previous process. And this `reversal' begins precisely with the Incarnation, with the Nativity of the `Second Man.' Fr. Indeed, God prepared to soften the hardnesses of our minds and from stumbling blocks to erect husbandmen of religion. St. Ambrose of Milan, Exposition of the Holy Gospel According to St. Luke
